In these day`s individualism where everyone has their struggle of survival. The medium of relaxation, to attain peace of mind is through books, music and by drowning in thoughts expressed in a painting. Henceforth, people in profession of fine arts are always get appreciated. There are few other facts I would like to give light upon.

Firstly, the creative art of a particular community, religion or race restores its cultural heritage. To support that, an artist beautifully presents his cultural prosperity in his work by a novel, painting or a song. For example, the poems and tales, written by "Shakespeare", show the customs in that time. Therefore the artist of those days will always stays in peoples heart.

Secondly, music plays an important role in people`s life. Notably, it controls the emotions of a person. For instance, an experiment has done at work place to see how music affects a work. The results were surprising, the quality and quantity has been improved since pleasant music played. It alters the job atmosphere to a positive one. This is one of the reasons why singers, musicians get high recognitions in society.

Finally, the art-work, done in ancient time, helps us in understanding the technology of the time. Because, in ancient time politicians, visionaries, physicians were the only people used to paint so, there painting were not a simple piece of art, they express great meaning, logic and scientific research of that time. To show, the perfect example is the painting of Mona Liza which has many mysteries hidden in it.

Hence, in this contemporary world, artists are the part of society who stores the time there work. They entertain, educate and inspire us. These people always have high value in community.
